

Devotional Day : Living Water, Part 2

Author: Peter

I remember a time when I had decided to eat my lunch by a stream in the country. Initially the stream appeared lifeless perhaps even poisoned by chemical waste. It wasn't until I sat down and gazed into the fast flowing stream that I saw that it was teeming with life beneath the surface.

No matter what your life appears like from the outside, if you are filled and continue to be filled by His Holy Spirit, you have all of His life, all of His wisdom, all His understanding, all His love, all His insight and all His power on the inside.

Acts 1:8: “But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will be My witness in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth.”

No one understood why Jesus had to die upon that cross at the time. All His closest friends deserted Him. Faith was replaced with fear. Little did they realise there would come a day when all the believers were in one place on the day of Pentecost.

Acts 2: 1-4: “When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.”

Whilst they were all in a state of spiritual thirst all of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues.

Yes...The supernatural river burst its banks and they were immersed in the Holy Spirit – Baptised. From that point on, they were able to heal the sick, raise the dead, cast out demons, and destroy the works of the devil in the Power of the Spirit.

John 14:12: “I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to my Father.”

I wonder? Are you thirsty for the Holy Spirit today? His riches are unfathomable. Nothing can compare to what God has in store for those who love Him.

There is a river whose streams make glad the City of God. So if you have not yet been baptised in the Spirit, then develop an unquenchable thirst for Him.

You see, what God wants more than anything else in your life is for you to discover the treasures He has waiting for you. Then your eyes will be opened to what He wants for your life and you will be empowered by His Spirit.

Matthew 10:7: “As you go, preach this message: ‘The kingdom of heaven is near.’ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons.”

God wants to carry out His work in this world, through you, so if you are willing:-

- Get Thirsty
- Desire those heavenly gifts like you’ve never desired them before.
- Press in and become a conduit for the Holy Spirit wherever you find yourself.
- Live life to the full
